

British Pharmaceutical Students' Association
The Official Student Organisation of the Royal Pharmaceutical Society

Become a BPSA Competitions Representative!!

Who?

The British Pharmaceutical Students' Association works to enhance the experience of its members by inspiring them to invest in their development, seize opportunities and become advocates for the profession. It was founded in 1942 and is led by an executive. One of these executive members is the BPSA Competitions Coordinator. They are currently recruiting a team of Competitions Representatives who will work under the guidance and supervision of them in order to ensure the running of BPSA competitions all over the UK. Reps, National, International and Competitions, are key to the running of our association. They are the face between their School of Pharmacy and BPSA, representing the BPSA at their School of Pharmacy and their School of Pharmacy to the BPSA.

What?

The BPSA liaises with many pharmaceutical companies, such as GSK, who sponsor the BPSA competitions. Competitions Representatives, will need to organise the first round of competitions at their School of Pharmacy. The second rounds will be held at the Spring Area Conferences, where two Competitions Representatives from each area will assist. The final rounds will be held at the Annual Conference, where two Competitions Representatives will assist. All competitions and competition rounds will need to be well promoted by Competitions Representatives at their School of Pharmacy.

Why?

As a Competitions Rep, you have the opportunity to inspire your colleagues and organise events which benefits other pharmacy students. From organising competitions to liaising with a number of people, including other reps and lecturers, you will have an unlimited potential for personal, professional, and social growth. As well as developing skills, you will get to meet like-minded pharmacy students from all over the UK and network with potential employers. It is definitely one for the CV!

How?

There will be two Competitions Representatives from each School of Pharmacy across the UK. Applications can be found on the BPSA website. Please ensure you apply prior to the deadline, if you are interested.